

Human Services Technology Academic Award

Samantha Jones

Samantha's life has taken her down many tough roads, yet she has emerged successful. She's a homeowner, small business owner and now student. Samantha actively shares about the battles she's fought in hopes that she can leave this world slightly better than before. Overcoming her struggles and thriving sparked the desire to take a risk on continuing her education. That risk is paying off and Samantha is excelling. Her pathway to Mitchell was rocky, but the difficulties reminds her what she is fighting for. Congratulations, Samantha!
